4M December A PETITION or THE PURITAN PRISONERS La MSS , Ixvm, printed in A F Scott Pearson, Thomas Carton. i«ht and Elizabethan Puritanism,* 1925, p 47°

ORDERS FOR REFORMING THE ARMY IN NORMANDY A P C , xxn 98

$th December AN UNSUCCESSFUL AMBUSCADE AT ROUEN Siege of Rouen, p 52

6th December GREENE'S " A MAIDEN'S DREAM * A R , n 600 Robert Greene, A Maiden s Dream* , 1591 This professional ululation in form parodies in anticipation some of the most notable English elegies, Lycidas, Adonais, and The Vision of Judgement — Southey's Modern editions in A B Grosart, The Complete Works of Robert Greene, 1881 , and J C Collins, The Plays and Poems of Robert Greene, 1905

iQth December SEVEN CATHOLICS EXECUTED The Life and Death of Mr Edmund Gentnges at S Omers, 1614 Cath Rec Soc , v 206
See ist November

I3//& December GREENE'S NOTABIE DISCOVERS or COSNAGE, AND THE SECOND PART OF Cow -CATCH ING ' AR, n 600 Robert Greene, A Notable Discovery ofCosnage, 1591, and The Second Paf t ofConny-Catching, 1592 Modern editions bv A B Grosart in The Complete W orls of Robert Greene, 1881 , and The Bodley Head Quartos, vol i , 1923 1 hough entered together, the Notable Discovery "was evidently published some little time before the Second Part Both pamphlets went into second editions in 1592 There were two important results of Greene's conny-catchmg pamphlets , they turned the attention of the gentleman reader, now beginning to grow weary of Arcadia and Euphues, to new interests, and they attracted a new kind of reader Greene's previous works, The Mourning Garment and Never Too Late, were dedicated to the gentlemen scholars of both Univer-sities , now he successfully appeals to merchants, apprentices, farmers, and plain countrymen The conny-catching pamphlets are a svmptom of the reaction to realism which was the first stage towards the satires and the humour plays at the end of the century

i$th December THE DEFENCE OF PLYMOUTH A P C , xxa 121

A NEGLIGENT COMMISSARY DISMISSED A P C , xxn 125

i6th December SIR CHRISTOPHER HATTON'S FUNERAL Stow, Annals

i^th December MASTERLESS MEN IN THE CITY TO BE TAUEN UP APC,xxu. 129

iZth December Two SUSPECTED RECUSANTS A P C, xxu 131

A NOTABLE INSTANCE OF THE CORRUPTION OF THESE WARS Siege of Rouen, page 60

19*^ December FURTHER MEASURES AGAINST RECUSANTS A P C , xxn 138

2ist December MASTERLESS MEN TO BE TAKEN UP IN KENT A P C , xxn 150

4& December* A HIGH-HANDED ARREST APC,xxii 151

z6th December THE TRIPOLI MERCHANTS RECOMMENDED TO CHARITY A PC, xxn 158

BEACON WATCHFS A PC, xxn 1 60